Verse 1

A

This old place has seen some years,

Bm

Shared some laughter, shed some tears,

C#m

Bm

A

Heard some secrets and some fears in the past.

Verse 2

I've been on the road too long,

All that time without a home.

I'm gonna make this a good one while it lasts.

Chorus

E Eaug A Amaj7

You can tell the future in your dreams.

E Eaug A Amaj7

The past is not exactly what it seems.

E F#m D

The present is the only way to change.

Verse 3

This old place has seen World War.

I wonder what kind of people walked these floors?

I guess that they, were just like you and me.

Verse 4

There's dusty beams and worn out seams,

Some lost and faded dreams.

I guess that ours, will be the last it sees.

Chorus
