

Five O'Clock
Copyright 2012 Steve Watkins

Key of D (or in E with capo)

Verse 1

D G5/C G5/B Gm/Bb
The end of another long night, quietly gray (day) is turning light.
(I've been alone all night)...

Bm A
It's five o'clock before the day.
G G/F# D G5/C G5/B Gm/Bb A7sus4
And this loneliness won't go a-way.

Verse 2

The sun begins to rise. Children wipe sleep from their eyes.
But I can't surrender to sleep, playing back memories I don't want to keep.

Chorus

D G/B Em A
Am I going to break or bend?
D D/F# G A
When will these hard times end?
D G/B Em A
I just can't see who could save me now.
G D A G5
It's not me, I don't know how.

Verse 3

The birds begin to sing. Another empty day they bring.
She's gone from my life, that's right. There's no one else in sight.

Verse 4 followed by Chorus

A woman in time comes to me. But where she is I just can't see.
I try too hard to look for her. I could sit still if I was sure.

Verse 5 (half verse)

And the dark clouds linger on. She's gone from my life, she's gone.