Verse 1

G

John, John, the banker's son,

F C

Didn't like the way that the bank was run.

G

He couldn't breathe in his coat and tie,

Am F

You could hear him sing as he said goodbye.

Chorus

C

F

G

I want to leave this rock and roll behind, lose my problems, before I lose my mind.

C

F

There's got to be a better way, I wanna leave right now, I wanna leave today.

Verse 2 followed by Chorus

Sweet young Mary was a legal secretary,

Working for the local DA.

One day she saw, all the crime in the law,

And as she walked out the door, the man heard her say.

Solo over C F

Verse 3 followed by Chorus

Now I'm talking to you cause I'm dissatisfied.

My teachers said they taught the truth, I think somebody lied.

Now I'm riding this train, and then I'm jumping on a plane,

And when I touch down, I hope it's not the same.

Verse 4 followed by Chorus

Big bad Dan was a Harley man,

He loved to ride his bike (hog) down to the Mira Mesa Inn.

When the crazy city life would get him down,

He would sing to himself as he thundered out of town.
